LR16-CR2.2-1 Criminal Case Filings and Reassignment

1. In adopting the following case assignment rules, the goals of the courts are to comply with Indiana Criminal Procedure Rule 2.2 and to maximize efficiency in the local criminal justice system by, except in certain circumstances, filing all cases against a particular defendant in the same court. The following criminal case assignment rules are to be applied in order beginning with the lowest-numbered paragraph and continuing sequentially until a case has been assigned to a particular court.
2. If a defendant is serving a sentence on probation or community corrections, then any new criminal case charging a felony offense shall be filed in the sentencing court.
3. If a case has not been assigned pursuant to the preceding paragraph and the defendant has a pending criminal case, then any new criminal case charging a felony offense shall be filed in the court with the pending case.
4. If a case has not been assigned pursuant to either of the preceding paragraphs and the highest offense level charged is a misdemeanor, then the case shall be filed in the Decatur Superior Court.
5. If a case has not been assigned pursuant to any of the preceding paragraphs and the highest offense level charged arises under Title 9 of the Indiana Code, then the case shall be filed in the Decatur Superior Court.
6. If a case has not been assigned pursuant to any of the preceding paragraphs, then the Clerk of the Decatur Circuit Court shall, by random selection, assign one-half (1/2) of the cases to the Decatur Superior Court and one-half (1/2) of the cases to the Decatur Circuit Court.

9. In the event that a change of judge is granted or a judge is disqualified or recuses, the other Decatur County judge shall be appointed as special judge unless that judge has previously recused or is not eligible to serve pursuant to the Code of Judicial Conduct, then reassignment shall be made on a rotating basis to one of the judges of the following courts:

LR16-JR4-1 Jury Notice and Selection

The Decatur Circuit Court and Decatur Superior Court adopt Indiana Jury Rule 4B as the method for notice of selection for jury pool and summons for jury service.

LR16-FL00-1 Children First Program

Pursuant to I.C. 31-15-9-1, the Court finds that parties to a dissolution proceeding with minor unemancipated children can benefit from participation in a Dissolution Education Workshop. The purpose of the workshop is to encourage mediation and cooperation between the parties, develop an understanding of the emotional and psychological impact on children of divorce and to explain successful techniques for dealing with the potential problems experienced by children during the dissolution process.

Therefore, in all dissolution actions where there are minor unemancipated children, the parties are ordered to attend a program entitled “Children First” (or a program of comparable content conducted in another Indiana county). Attendance is mandatory in every such action filed on or after January 1, 1994. The two (2) hour program must be completed prior to the final hearing. The parties shall pay the program fee of Thirty-Five Dollars ($35.00) per person, effective August 5, 2004, with an allowance for waiver of fees for indigency.

The program shall be presented by Debra Cruser, Decatur County Family Court Counselor. The parties are directed to contact her within ten (10) days of commencement of a cause of action or within ten (10) days of service of summons at 812-593-1777 to make an appointment to attend the program. Failure to attend and complete the program may result in a contempt citation and punishment or suspension of visitation. Session times shall be established by the Family Court Counselor.

Attorneys representing petitioners are ordered to give a copy of this Rule to their clients and the Decatur County Clerk shall furnish a copy to any pro se petitioners and attach a copy to the summons to be served on all respondents.

LR16-AR00-1 Civil Case Filings

Civil cases may be filed in either court in Decatur County with the following exceptions:

1. All juvenile cases (CHINS and delinquency) are filed in Circuit Court.
  2. All small claims (SC), protective order (PO), mortgage foreclosure (MF), and civil collections (CC) cases are filed in Superior Court.
- (Amended effective June 1, 2012)*

Preamble

In all cases, the Court shall proceed pursuant to these Rules unless the Court directs a longer retention period after motion by any party or on its own motion.

(A) Retention Periods for Civil Cases, Including Adoption, Paternity, and Juvenile Proceedings. All models, diagrams, documents, or material admitted in evidence or pertaining to the case placed in the custody of the court reporter as exhibits shall be taken away by the parties offering them in evidence, except as otherwise ordered by the Court, four (4) months after the case is decided unless an appeal is taken. If an appeal is taken, all such exhibits shall be retained by the court reporter for two (2) years from termination of the appeal, retrial, or subsequent appeal and termination, whichever is later.

The Court reporter shall retain the mechanical or electronic records or tapes, shorthand or stenographic notes as provided in Indiana Administrative Rule 7.

(B) Retention Periods for Evidence Introduced in Criminal Misdemeanor, Class D and Class C Felonies and Attempts. All models, diagrams, documents, or material admitted in evidence or pertaining to the case placed in the custody of the court reporter as exhibits shall be taken away by the parties offering them in evidence except as otherwise ordered by the Court, three (3) years after the case is dismissed, the defendant is found not guilty, or the defendant is sentenced, unless an appeal is taken. If an appeal is taken, all such exhibits shall be retained by the court reporter for three (3) years from termination of the appeal, retrial, or subsequent appeal and termination, whichever is later, unless an action challenging the conviction or sentence, or post-conviction action, is pending.

The Court reporter shall retain the mechanical or electronic records or tapes, shorthand or stenographic notes as provided in Indiana Administrative Rule 7.

(C) Retention Periods for Evidence Introduced in Criminal Class B and A Felonies and Murder and Attempts. All models, diagrams, documents, or material admitted in evidence or pertaining to the case placed in the custody of the court reporter as exhibits shall be taken away by the parties offering them in evidence, except as otherwise ordered by the Court, twenty (20) years after the case is dismissed, the defendant found not guilty, or the defendant is sentenced, unless an appeal is taken. If an appeal is taken, all such exhibits shall be retained by the court reporter for twenty (20) years from termination of the appeal, retrial, or subsequent appeal and termination, whichever is later, unless an action challenging the conviction or sentence, or post-conviction action, is pending.

The court reporter shall retain the mechanical or electronic records or tapes, shorthand or stenographic notes as provided in Indiana Administrative Rule 7.

(D) Non-documentary and Oversized Exhibits. Non-documentary and oversized exhibits shall not be sent to the Appellate level Court, but shall remain in the custody of the trial court or Administrative Agency during the appeal. Such exhibits shall be briefly identified in the Transcript where they were admitted into evidence. Photographs of any exhibit may be included in the volume of documentary exhibits.

Under no circumstances should drugs, currency, or other dangerous or valuable items be included in appellate records.

(E) Disposition. In all cases, within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the applicable retention period, the parties shall take away all evidence that is in the custody of the court reporter. At the time of removal, a detailed receipt shall be given to the court reporter by the party receiving and removing the evidence, and the receipt will be made part of the court file.

In all cases, the Court, or the sheriff on the Court's order, should dispose of evidence that is not retaken by the parties. The sheriff should be ordered to destroy evidence if its possession is illegal or if it has negligible value. Evidence of some value should be auctioned by the sheriff with proceeds going to the county general fund. These Rules and their retention periods will take precedence over inconsistent language in statutes. Indiana Code § 35-33-5-5(c)(2).

(F) Biologically Contaminated Evidence. A party who offers biologically contaminated evidence must file a pretrial notice with the trial court and serve all the parties so that the court can consider the issue and rule appropriately before trial. A party can show contaminated evidence or pass photographs of it to jurors, but no such evidence, however, contained, shall be handled or passed to jurors or sent to the Jury Room.

(Adopted October 28, 2010, effective January 1, 2011)

LR16-AR19-1 Courthouse Security

Ind. Administrative Rule 19 requires that “(e)ach court shall develop and implement a court security plan to ensure security in court facilities”. 4. Anyone refusing to comply with this Order is to be denied entrance to the Decatur County Courthouse.
5. Anyone violating this Order may be found to be in contempt of court and punished for that contempt pursuant to the inherent power of the Courts and/or pursuant to I.C. § 34-47, I.C. § 34-47-2, and/or I.C. § 34-47-3.
6. The following individuals are exempt from this order:
  - (a) a law enforcement officer, as defined in I.C. § 35-31.5-2-185;
  - (b) a judicial officer, as defined in I.C. § 35-31.5-2-177.7;
  - (c) a probation officer appointed pursuant to I.C. § 11-13-1-1, who has satisfied all of the conditions listed in I.C. § 11-13-1-3.5;
  - (d) an employee of a locally or regionally operated Community Corrections Program, who is authorized to carry a firearm by his or her supervisor;
  - (e) any other person authorized by at least one (1) full-time judicial officers of the Courts shall be exempt until at least one (1) full-time judicial officers of the Courts withdraw the exemption. The judicial officers are to promptly provide the Decatur County Sheriff with a copy of the authorization or the withdrawal of the authorization.

7. Any person listed in Paragraph 6 SHALL NOT BE EXEMPT whenever they or any member of their family is a party to any proceeding taking place. This does not include appearing in the individual's official capacity.
